

GERMAN ARMY MAKING DESPERATE ATTEMPT TO STOP DASHING YANKEES

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY NORTHWEST OF VERDUN, Oct. 28.—By the Associated Press.—Altho the German army is making the most desperate effort in the war's history to prevent the Americans from breaking thru in the vital Verdun sector it is equally or more feared there may be a breach endangering Metz, with the consequent necessity of abandoning all the territory still occupied and an invasion of the German empire itself.

With division after division of troops, machine guns and artillery the enemy is bitterly defending himself west of Verdun. But it is with an elaborately strong trench system with rows of barbed wire and even electrified wire that he has been feverishly working during the past few weeks to make Metz invulnerable. The system has been laid out, roughly between Pont-a-Moussin, Avricourt and the river seille, with a parallel front from Cheminot to Vic.

The enemy's activity first showed itself between Chateau-Salins and Moyenvic, where no fewer than five parallel trenches have been constructed and three on the reverse side of the slopes. The greater part of this system has only recently been completed. Two additional lines in the rear have already been planned and traced out and a double system of dugouts and machine gun emplacements has been prepared. This position is continued in the direction of Marsal and Mulcey.

Another position has been hastily organized defending the heights of Juvelize and Donnelay. It was along the ridge upon which is situated Marimont Chateau and passes about a third of a mile from Bourdonay; it follows the southern outskirts of Maizieres woods and finally reaches the southern outskirts of Rechicourt forest and the heights of Foulerey, east of Avricourt.

The southern pivot of this fortified position is situated northwest of Cirey. The greater part of the line is strong with electrically charged wires, the current of which is furnished by high tension generators, plants being located at the Salins Gorge, Morhange and Sarresbourg.

Still Finding Mines

With the American Army northwest of Verdun, Oct. 28.—By the Associated Press.—The American troops are still finding mines and hidden explosives in Chatel Chevery. The latest trap of this kind was an innocent appearing walking stick, suspended at the entrance of a dugout as if left by its hurriedly departing owner. Investigation showed a fine wire ran from the cane to a point where it was connected with a two-five pound charge of high explosive.

Railroad Sheds Destroyed

With the American forces northwest of Verdun, Oct. 28.—By the Associated Press.—Observers report that extensive destruction to railroad sheds and other German military buildings was done by the bombing expedition conducted yesterday by allied aviators.

Fires started by bombs dropped in the region of Briquenas five and a half miles north of Grand Pre, were still burning today. Of five American aviators missing Sunday four were reported during the night as having landed within the American lines.

Brings Down 22nd Plane

With the American Army Northwest of Verdun, Oct. 28.—By the Associated Press.—Captain Edward Rickenbacher of the American flying forces has received confirmation of his second victory over German airplanes in the intensive fighting of Sunday. This makes Rickenbacher's total of enemy machines disposed of, twenty-two.

In Sunday's fighting Rickenbacher had two encounters with German flyers but refused to claim a victory in the first. Other aviators and observers in completing their reports today, however, showed that Rickenbacher had sent two of the enemy down the first time the German lines.

Order Huns to Hold Fast

With the American Army Northwest of Verdun, Oct. 28.—By the Associated Press.—"Hold fast, an armistice has not yet been concluded," is the word sent to the German troops by Field Marshal von Hindenburg, chief of the general staff, according to a captured document now in the hands of the Americans. The German commander's appeal read:

"German soldiers be vigilant! some the word represents a certain trench and camps, but we have not yet reached that point. To some the word represents a certainty; to others it is even a synonym of peace so long desired. They believe that events no longer depend upon them. Their vigilance is relaxed; their courage and their endurance, as well as their spirit of defiance toward the enemy are diminished.

"We have not yet reached our aim. The armistice has not been concluded. The war is still on—the same war as ever.

"Now more than ever, you must be vigilant and hold fast. You are upon the enemy's soil and on the soil of Alsace-Lorraine, the bulwark of our country. In this grave hour, the fatherland relies on you for its prosperity and for its safety.

FURTHER DRAFT CALLS FOR ILLINOIS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 28.—A call for 2,395 white men for general military service, to be trained for Camp Wadsworth, Spartanburg, South Carolina, the five day period beginning November 11, was received by Adjutant General Dickson today. Another call directs the entrainment of 465 colored men beginning November 19. These calls exhaust the draft available in all registration lists previous to that of September 12.

ROOSEVELT IN STIRRING SPEECH ANSWERS WILSON

Urges the Voters To Transfer Control to Republicans

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, answering President Wilson's appeal for return of a Democratic majority in congress, urged voters of the nation in an address here to transfer control to Republican leadership. Such an outcome of the election, he declared, would assure our allies that America is determined to speed up the war and insist upon unconditional surrender of the enemy and would serve notice on Germany and her "vassal states" they would have to deal henceforth with the resolute and straightforward will of the American people and not merely with the obscure purposes and wavering will of Mr. Wilson.

Declaring that half the leaders of the president's own party opposed him when he had committed himself to war measures, Col. Roosevelt asserted that heads of the Republican organization in congress supported the administration when a declaration of war was needed, when there was a demand for the draft, when the army was sent overseas, and when money was required by taxation or by loans.

Must Stand by People

"We Republicans pledge ourselves to stand by the president," said Colonel Roosevelt, so long as he stands by the American people and to part company from him at any point where in our judgment he does not stand by the people," he said.

"This is the people's government, and this is the people's war and the peace that follows shall be the people's peace."

The former president spoke at a meeting under the auspices of the Republican club at Carnegie Hall to advocate the election of the Republican state ticket here in New York and of the Republican and congressional ticket throughout the union.

Rebuking what he termed the "servility" of Democratic leadership, the colonel said it was "small wonder that in the cloak rooms of the house the bitterest circles circulate: 'Here's to our czar, last in war, first toward peace, long may he waver!'"

Mr. Roosevelt criticized the general course of the administration, but he did not declare that the president was wrong.

Contrasted With Lincoln

Contrasting the president's appeal with Lincoln's "outright refusal, even in the darkest days of the civil war to apply any party test to fitness for office," the colonel said that Lincoln "appealed to all loyal men of all parties and asked that candidates for congress be judged, not by the standard of adherence to his personal administration but by their unconditional support of the war."

Election of a Republican congress, the colonel continued, "would be understood abroad as meaning that the pro-Germans and pacifists and Bolsheviks and Germanized Socialists could no longer be counted upon as efficient and tortuous tools, that the fighting men and not the rhetoricians were uppermost."

Mr. Roosevelt interpreted the president's reference to the anti-administration attitude of Republican members of congress as based on their demand that inefficiency, waste and extravagance be remedied, "in the war-conducting departments."

MALICIOUS STORIES IN CIRCULATION

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—The malicious story that doctors were caught inoculating men in service with influenza germs and were shot in consequence has been turned upon the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, following its rejection by authorities at Jefferson Barracks, Camp Custer, and numerous army posts throughout the midwest. Captain Moffett, commandant at Great Lakes said today that he had been almost swamped with telegrams, letters and telephone messages inquiring about the lie and asked that a blanket denial be issued to parents, friends and relatives of sailors at the station.

Captain Moffett also denied a similarly conceived story to the effect that whiskey in large quantities had been used in combating influenza at Great Lakes. He said absolutely no whiskey had been used.

Latest German Note To President Wilson

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—There is no essential difference between the official text of the German government's reply to President Wilson's last note as transmitted to the state department today by the Swiss legation and the wireless version. The official text was made public tonight by Secretary Lansing.

"Department of State, Oct. 28, 1918.

"The Secretary of State makes public the following:

"From the Charge d'Affaires a. i. of Switzerland to the Secretary of State:

"Legation of Switzerland, Washington D. C., Oct. 28, 1918.

"Department of German interests.

"Sir:

"I am instructed by my government and have the honor to submit to your excellency the original German text of a communication from the German government dated Oct. 27, 1918, which has today been received from the Swiss foreign office. I beg leave also to inclose an English translation of the above mentioned communication, the German text of which, however, is alone to be considered as authoritative. Accept sir, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration:

(Signed) "F. OEDERLIN, Charge d'Affaires, ad interim.

"His Excellency Robert Lansing, Secretary of State, Washington.

"Translation of a communication from the German government, dated Oct. 27th, 1918, as transmitted by the Charge d'Affaires, A. I. of Switzerland, Oct. 28, 1918:

"The German government has taken cognizance of the reply of the president of the United States. The president knows the far reaching changes which have taken place and are being carried out in the German constitutional structure. The peace negotiations are being conducted by a government of the people in whose hands rests, both actually and constitutionally, the authority to make decisions. The military powers are also subject to this authority. The German government now awaits the proposals for an armistice, which is the first step toward a peace of justice as described by the president in his pronouncements.

(Signed) "SOLF, State Secretary of Foreign Affairs, Berlin, Oct. 27, 1918.

AUSTRIAN NOTE TO WILSON

The Austrian note is dated October 28th, at Vienna and is signed by Count Julius Andrássy, the new foreign minister.

The text of the Austrian reply to President Wilson reads:

The Austro-Hungarian foreign minister instructed the Austro-Hungarian minister at Stockholm yesterday to ask the Swedish government to send the following note to Washington government:

"In reply to the note of President Wilson of the 18 of this month addressed to the Austro-Hungarian government and giving the decision of the president to speak directly with the Austro-Hungarian government on the question of an armistice and of peace, the Austro-Hungarian government has the honor to declare that equally with the preceding proclamations of the president it adheres also to same point of view contained in the last note upon the rights of the Austro-Hungarian peoples, especially those of the Czech-Slovaks and the Dugo-Slavs.

"Austro-Hungary, accepting all the conditions for an armistice and peace, no obstacle exists, according to judgment of the Austro-Hungarian government to the beginning of these negotiations.

"The Austro-Hungarian government declares itself ready, in consequence without awaiting the result of other negotiations to enter into negotiations upon peace between Austro-Hungary and the states in the opposing group and for an immediate armistice upon all Austro-Hungarian fronts.

"It asks President Wilson to be so kind as to begin overtures on this subject."

Care Given U. S. Soldiers Highest In The World

AN ATLANTIC PORT, Oct. 28

—Major General Ireland, head of the Medical department of the American Expeditionary Forces in France who recently was relieved in order to succeed Major General William C. Gorgas, as surgeon general of the United States army, arrived here today on a British ship. He was accompanied by Brigadier General J. R. Keane, his deputy. Both will proceed to Washington.

Major General Ireland, who accompanied General Pershing to France, declared that the standard of the medical care given the American soldiers was the highest in the world. Including the wounded, he said, only 43 men in 1,000 are ill and of these only one per cent suffer from disease.

Influenza and pneumonia have been present among American troops ever since the first men landed, but it was found men in the trenches suffered little from these diseases, because of their open air life. Most cases were contracted in training camps or on transports. Notwithstanding the heavy fighting in which Americans engaged, the general said the medical hospitals have been able to handle all cases and when he left France the hospitals still had vacant beds. This he attributed to the personnel of the medical corps composed of the best surgeons and physicians in America, among whom are Brigadier General J. M. T. Finney of Johns Hopkins, chief consulting surgeon; Brigadier General W. S. Thayer, also of Johns Hopkins, chief medical officer; Colonel Joel Goldthwaite of Boston,

Orthopedic surgeon; Col. T. W. Salmon, of the Rockefeller Institute, head of the department of medical diseases.

THREE NAVAL AVIATORS KILLED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Three fatalities among marine corps officers in the aviation service abroad are reported to the navy department today by Vice-Admiral Sims. Second Lieutenant Harry C. Norman, 2114 Fairmont street, Davenport, Ia., and Caleb W. Taylor, Pelahatchie, Miss., were killed when a bombing plane was shot down by the Germans on the Belgian front. Lieut. Ralph Talbott of Weymouth, Mass., was killed when his plane fell in the same sector.

PRESENTED SEAT FROM SON'S AIRPLANE

New York, Oct. 28.—Colonel Roosevelt was today presented with a portion of the seat of the airplane which his son Lieutenant Quentin Roosevelt was killed in while in flight in France. The gift was made by Arthur E. Hungerford, a returned Y. M. C. A. official. Parts of the plane were discovered on the floor of the grave after the Germans had been driven from that sector.

AWARDED MEDAL OF HONOR

Washington, Oct. 28.—It is learned from official sources that the action of the Japanese Red Cross in awarding a medal of honor to Colonel Roosevelt was in appreciation of a liberal allotment he made to the society in his distribution of the Nobel Peace Prize Fund.

NOMINATED JUDGE

Washington, Oct. 28.—John W. Hanan, of La Grande, Ind., was nominated today by President Wilson to be United States district judge for the district of the canal zone.

SENATORS DEBATE PRESIDENT'S PLEA TO COUNTRYMEN

Carrying On Peace Discussions Also Criticized

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Peace negotiations and President Wilson's statement asking his fellow countrymen to return a Democratic congress in the November elections were the vehicles of a partisan debate in the senate today which continued through the session and blocked plans for adjournment of congress tomorrow for the elections.

The discussion, which was opened by Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, Republican and former secretary of state with an attack on the president's appeal to the electorate, became general among the dozen senators present.

Republicans sharply criticized the president for carrying on peace discussions with the central powers and for enunciating terms and principles of peace.

President or People

Senator Knox said that the president's appeal raised the question whether the will of the president or the will of the American people is to determine the policy of this country in ending the war. Senator Poindexter of Washington, Republican said the president assumed more authority than is given under the constitution in fixing peace terms. The Washington senator said no greater service could be done Germany than to bring about an armistice.

Democratic senators vigorously defended the president. With Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, chairman of the foreign relations committee, the chief spokesman.

Answering Republican contentions that in his third principle against economic barriers the president was attempting to inject free trade into the peace treaty Senator Hitchcock read a letter from the president saying that his words left every nation free to decide its own internal economic policy but that tariff adopted should apply to all nations alike.

Before the senate met a similar letter addressed to Senator Simmons of North Carolina had been made public. Senators Knox and Poindexter said the letters clearly demonstrated that the president favors admitting Germany to the proposed league of nations as an equal partner and with assurances against discriminatory treatment.

Senator Hitchcock said the Republican leaders for partisan political ends are making a deliberate attempt to "distort and misrepresent" the third peace principle. He emphasized that the Republican "free trade" attack had been withheld until the present political campaign. This drew from Senator Lodge of Massachusetts the Republican leader the declaration that he had not endorsed all of the president's fourteen principles and had especially opposed the terms, which, he said, proposed to guarantee the "free trade" principle.

Senator Ashurst of Arizona, Democrat, referred to the attacks on President Wilson by Theodore Roosevelt declaring that the former president also had criticized Senators Lodge, Smoot and Penrose at the time the progressive party was formed.

"The things Colonel Roosevelt said about Senators Lodge, Smoot and Penrose were just as untrue as the things he has said about President Wilson," said Senator Ashurst.

Because of Republican opposition, plans to adjourn congress from tomorrow until Nov. 12 failed and both houses adjourned until Thursday when Republican senators plan to continue the peace and political discussion. The house had adopted the resolution for adjournment but after the senate failed to act it annulled its action.

Republican senators were said to desire to hold the senate technically in session to await developments in the peace negotiations as well as to continue the discussion on the floor. Democratic leaders said tonight that if necessary they would prevent any further peace and political debate by parliamentary resort.

San Juan, P. R., Oct. 28.—Three persons are dead and seven injured as a result of an earthquake Thursday, midnight, according to reports received by Governor Tague today.

ARMISTICE PROPOSALS AWAITED BY GERMANY; AUSTRIA READY TO QUIT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—While Germany's latest note to President Wilson was being delivered to the state department today thru the Swiss legation, cable despatches from Europe brought information that the Austro-Hungarian government had caused another communication to be despatched to the president asking that negotiations for peace and an armistice be entered into without awaiting Germany's answer.

The Vienna government asserted it adhered to the same point of view expressed by the president in his last communication upon the rights of the Austro-Hungarian peoples especially those of the Czech-Slovaks and Jugoslavs and requested that he begin overtures with the allied governments with a view to ending immediately hostilities on all Austro-Hungarian fronts. . . .

The official text of the official German did not differ from the unofficial version received by cable.

No official comment was forthcoming but it is known no response will be made at present to the communication which is believed to have been despatched with the primary purpose of satisfying the German public that the government is not missing any opportunity to forward communications looking for peace.

Regarding renewed assurance in the German note that the constitutional structure of the German government has been and is being changed to democratic lines it is pointed out that the truth of this statement and the scope of the changes already made or projected after all are matters to be dealt with in connection with peace and not in arranging an armistice. A strong indisposition is evidenced officially to yield to the apparent intent of both German and Austrian negotiators to combine these two essentially different functions in one phase of the negotiations.

Warning against peace with Austria that would not give the allies free passage thru that country to attack the Germans from the south was sounded here today by Captain Vasile Stoica, now in Washington who represented the Rumanians of Austria-Hungary in the conference of oppressed nationalities last week at Philadelphia and who was wounded fighting against the Austrians and Germans.

Captain Stoica said that if immune from attack from the south, the Germans by withdrawing to the natural defenses of the Rhine in the west might be able to carry on the war several years because on this shorter front the allied superiority of forces could not be used to full advantage.

WAR SUMMARY

News of Activities On Various Battle Fronts in Summarized Form By Associated Press.

While Germany and Austria are seeking cessation of hostilities and Turkey also is reported favorably disposed toward peace, entente allied troops on all battle fronts are continuing without mercy to drive their foes in all directions where the allies are meeting with marked success. In France the German battle line is slowly disintegrating under violence of allied offensive; in northern Italy, Austro-Hungarians are being forced back by British, French and Italians with heavy losses in men killed, wounded or made prisoners; near the Mediterranean in Albania, Italians are driving Austrians toward Montenegro frontier and Asiatic Turkey, in Syria and Mesopotamia British are fastest clearing Turks from former strongholds.

Altho Germans in France and Flanders still are strenuously resisting allied attempts to break their line they are giving away steadily under attack in other theatres and apparently are not in any way disposed to resist right of way, except possibly in the mountain region of Italy, where an attempt is being made by allied forces to open the back door into Austria.

South of Valenciennes in France, Field Marshal Haig's forces, notwithstanding opposition have advanced in the general operation which has in view capture of Valenciennes and pressing on toward the Mons and Maubeuge in general converging movement between Belgium and north of Verdun. Further south from the Oise river to the region of Reims, French have gained six miles victory by forcing retreat of the enemy in the big salient north of Laon and are threatening to cause collapse of the entire German line eastward thru a fast turning movement. American troops have been thrown into the line near Reims and have advanced nearly a mile and taken numerous prisoners. The German war office admits success by the French between the Serre and Oise rivers, saying the German lines were withdrawn Sunday night west of Guise and east of Crecy.

In connection with this general movement American northwest of Verdun have begun an operation which may have important results. For the first time since the Americans entered the war they opened fire against back lines of the enemy with their new long range guns and are heavily bombarding Longwy, fifteen miles distant. It is over the territory thru which American guns are throwing their shells that Germans have been reinforcing their lines eastward and should the blasting process prove effective in blazing a trail along the Meuse for a quick advance by the Americans it is not improbable German retreat from the region east of St. Quentin northeastward to Launcburg will be made.

On the Northern Italian front hard fighting is in progress between Brenina and Piave rivers. Along the Piave, allied troops have crossed the river inflicting heavy casualties on the enemy and taking more than 9,000 prisoners. In Albania Austrians have been driven back by Italians in the region of Alessio, which lies 20 miles southeast of Scutari, just south of the Montenegrin border.

In Serbia, Austrians have evacuated Kragujevatz, 55 miles southeast of Belgrade and are still in retirement. Turks are fast being driven out of Mesopotamia and in Syria, General Allenby's troops are keeping in close contact with Ottoman forces north of Aleppo.

The aviators were captured during the period from September 3 to September 27 and they escaped from Valenciennes on Sept. 27, reaching the Dutch border after many narrow escapes.

THREE GOOD THEMES.

The Republican party can justly "point with pride" to the fact that during the entire year past its leaders have continually hammered away on three themes:

1. Win the war now.
2. Peace with victory, and never a peace by compromise bargaining of principles which would violate American rights, interests and honor, and make a sacrifice of our sacrifice to be made again by our grandchildren.
3. For a sane preparation now for the great problems of reconstruction.

To fair minded, patriotic citizens it is easily apparent that the party leaders have in these themes sensed the spirit and sentiment of the people.

CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF.

It's just another week now until election and the voters of this county will very soon make up their minds as to the local candidates they will support. In considering the merit and worth of candidates, one on the ticket will measure up more favorably than Vincent R. Riley, who is a Republican candidate for sheriff. The years of Mr. Riley's life in Morgan county and Jacksonville are as an open book. There are no closed pages no blots, and he is a man of clear integrity. He has demonstrated his business ability in the conduct of his affairs and in the business management of a large institution. He can be trusted as collector of taxes and he can be relied upon to view with real seriousness his sworn obligation to enforce the law. Vincent Riley if elected will make an excellent and efficient county officer.

MISTAKEN ABOUT THE FACTS.

W. N. Hairgrove, who in an article in another column states his opposition to the proposed good roads bond issue, bases at least a part of his argument on errors. Without going into any extensive discussion of Mr. Hairgrove's suggestions, that because wrong assumption in the paragraph referring to present high cost of labor and material. Mr. Hairgrove suggests that because of these high prices this is not an opportune time for building. He says that buying now in these days of $2 wheat and $1 corn and then paying back the money in the days when lower levels have been reached, is not a good plan.

Evidently Mr. Hairgrove has overlooked the definite and unqualified agreement entered into by Gov. Lowden and other state officials that if the bond issue is authorized at the coming election that neither will the bonds be issued or the work undertaken until after the war. This statement has been published over and over again but has evidently escaped Mr. Hairgrove's attention.

ESTRANGING THE INDEPENDENT.

Even if Mr. Wilson felt that a Democratic Congress was desirable, the wonder is that he did not foresee that such a statement as he issued Friday would be highly impolitic and would be almost certain to react against him.

The campaign gave promise of being a quiet one. It was different from any other campaign that had preceded it. Men who had constantly voted for war measures were likely to be returned to Congress with little opposition. The knives were out only on mainly for those that had signally failed to support the war.

The President himself, months ago, pronounced "politics abandoned" and while there were evidences that his own party was not holding too strongly to the pledge, Republicans were willing to respect the true up to within a few days of election. They were willing to let their candidates stand on their own merits, and assurance was given that in whatever measures the President proposed for hastening the war to a final victory he would not be opposed by Republicans.

Mr. Wilson could have afforded to let the matter rest; there. The theory is that he was induced to give out his statement by Postmaster Burleson, a violent partisan, and by Secretary Tamm, who of late has been exceedingly active politically. They have proved bad advisers.

RED CROSS MEETS EMERGENCIES.

The work of establishing the emergency hospital at the open air school building and that of preparing the Dr. Day hospital for "like" cases is commendable. Sometimes the people of this city are accused of being a little slow in connection with even worthy enterprises but it is nevertheless a fact that when special needs arise these needs are always met and the record of the city and county will compare favorably with the records of other communities. The emergency hospital is proving of great help to many people and the credit for whatever good work has been done belongs to the Red Cross society.

Just now in the popular mind Red Cross activities attach only to the war, but as a matter of fact the Red Cross society is a great philanthropic organization which comes to the rescue in all times of great peril or devastation by disease, fire or flood. In this good work the Morgan County Red Cross society is represented by a special committee of which Judge E. P. Brockhouse is the chairman. The members of committee have been active in the work and they have received local assistance from a great many sources. In fact the Red Cross society in Morgan county includes about 7,000 in its membership, so that the emergency hospital established here really means that the people are helping themselves.

$53,244 EXPENDED ON COUNTY ROADS.

During the years 1913, 1914, 1915 and 1916 Morgan County was allotted $26,622 from the State Road Fund under the provisions of the Tice Road Law for road improvement. A like amount was raised by the county by general taxation. $53,244 have been spent on State Aid roads in the county since 1913. As a result of this expenditure we have today a mile and an eighth of permanent hard-surfaced 365 day road on the Morgan Road and some permanent concrete bridges.

At this rate how long will it take Morgan County to get a county wide system of hard roads? The proposed Sixty Million Dollar Bond Issue for a State-Wide system of hard roads will provide the State with 4,800 miles of hard surfaced roads extending into every county of the State within five years after the close of the war, and it will be paid for entirely by auto license fees without one cent of taxation. The proposed State-Wide system will give Morgan County nearly fifty miles of hard roads. The county can then add to this mileage under the provisions of the Tice Law. Under these plans the county can have a county-wide system of hard roads in the near future.

If you want dependable roads in Morgan County and all over Illinois while you are alive and can use them, vote YES on the Little Road Improvement Ballot on Nov. 5. Remember, if you do not mark the ballot "YES" you will be counted as voting against the road improvement.

Rippling Rhymes

By Walt Mason

Storied Places.
On Jordan's stormy banks I stand, and watch, with cheerful eyes, the hurried Turks burn up the land, as they go whirling by. Thru storied scenes they wildly rush their cottails flapping wide, they're scratching for the underbrush, where they may hope to hide. By cool Sileam's shady rill the Turk, in deep distress, is wondering how Kaiser Bill got him in such a mess. Could I but stand where Moses stood and view the landscape o'er, I'd see the Turk vamoose for good from Jordan's sacred shore. The rose that blooms beneath the hill must shortly fade away, and so the Turk, with lust to kill must perish and decay. Too long, too long he's hung around, a blenheim on the Syrian bank, from the tomb's a doleful sound, tells that his end is near. The Turk still trots on weary limbs, and leaves much dust behind; and, as we read, forgotten hymns, unbidden, come to mind. The hill-sides and the towns and streams knew One, long, long ago, who has inspired the hopes and dreams of all good Christians know. It is the spool of hallowed works and is good to see such moral lepers as the Turks chased out of Galilee. Oh, may they be forever banished, forever, and a day, from Canaan's fair and happy land, where their possessions lay.

WATER SUPPLY IS BETTER SINCE RAIN

Supply At Lake Increased Largely—Commissioner Martin Finds Influenza Conditions Improved.

At the council session Monday morning Commissioner Vasconcellos was able to report that the heavy rains had increased the supply of water in Morgan lake materially. The rainfall has put three feet of water into the lake and the supply is still running in from tiles; so that if there is more rainfall in the next two weeks the city can enter upon the late fall and winter season with about an average supply. The council session was brief and little of importance was discussed. After the call to order by Mayor Rogers department reports were presented. In addition to the statement made above Mr. Vasconcellos stated that the fuel administration suggestion with reference to the boiler house equipment for the saving of fuel had been carried out.

In referring to the water supply he indicated that the strainers and other equipment at the north wells are being kept in condition to obtain as much water as possible there. However, gravel and sand occasionally clogs the strainers. There are still a number of men sick in the light and water departments and the working force is less than usual but some improvement has been noted in the past few days.

Commissioner White said the heavy rainfall had brought on a good deal of additional street cleanup work and little else would be done. The suggestion of the state council of defense for people not to burn their leaves is having the effect of sending more leaves into the streets and gutters than would otherwise be true. The commissioner referred to conditions on South Main street where the heavy rain has interfered with contractor Bretz in his paving work. So much earth has been washed on the foundation at one or two points that it will be necessary to remove it before the tarvia is applied.

Commissioner Martin reported that influenza conditions are considerably improved. Not nearly so many cases had been reported Sunday and Monday as had been during previous days. Some minor matters were discussed and the council then adjourned.

Dirt Road Advocates Oppose State-Wide Road System

For many years an organized combination of dirt-road advocates in Illinois has opposed every movement for permanent road improvement. This combination was the backbone of the opposition to the enactment of the hard road provisions of the Tice Law and after its passage, succeeded in forcing through a legislative amendment to the hard roads provisions of the Tice Law which permitted counties to use State Aid funds for the building of permanent earth roads. Everyone knows that with the present knowledge of road building there can be no permanent earth roads built on our prairies, yet the counties are wasting money trying to accomplish the impossible.

The combination of dirt road "advocates" is composed largely of manufacturers and jobbers of dealers in and salesmen for dirt-road machinery, metal culverts, etc., road oils and many other dirt-road appliances. Not infrequently road officers, while serving as such, have at the same time acted as agents for some of these manufacturers and dealers. This combination is very largely responsible for the address in permanent road improvement in Illinois.

Just now the earth roads combination and its allies are fighting the sixty million dollar bond issue for the state-wide system of hard roads. Its mouthpieces can usually be located by the condemnation of the split-log drag, the cheapest and best dirt-road implement ever invented, and by the cry that cement manufacturers are behind the hard road movement.

Some men will be misled by the statement that cement men are for hard roads. Perhaps they do favor them. The cement men also favor the use of cement by railroads and other big concerns in their construction work, by the building of levees, dams, by farmers and others in their construction work but that is no reason why we should cease using cement. The fact is that this is an age of cement. Concrete and cement are being used with entire satisfaction in many ways not dreamed of a few years ago.

Other arguments used to defeat the bond issue are: the system will never be built; if it is built, it will not last; motor vehicle license fees will not pay the bill; the local road districts should control the road expenditures and not the State Highway Department which is given too much authority; and the system is not right because it does not pass your farm or come to your town and the other fellow is getting the improvement.

When you hear a man presenting any of these arguments, ascertain his motives, find out if he is not in some way profiting from dirt roads. The dirt road advocates will never have a system of hard roads, if she does not start to build one. It cannot be built as a whole all at one time. The Tice Law gave the 102 counties the opportunity to build hard roads (they will still have this privilege, if the bond issue is approved), but during the five years since the Tice Law was enacted we have not gotten very far with our 102 systems of hard roads. If the building of local road authorities, we would have over 3000 different systems, whereas in practice we have found to our sorrow that 102 systems are too many. We will never have a uniform State-wide system of hard roads until we place its construction in the hands of one state department instead of the 102 county boards or more than 3000 local road district officers.

The law providing for the construction of the State-wide system is well drawn. The auto license fees will be used to pay for the system and they will be sufficient to do so. We have had enough experience in building hard roads to know that such a system can be built within five years after the close of the war, and that the roads proposed to be built are as durable as any road can be. Therefore the county and the Tice Law got busy and built promptly a county-wide system of hard roads. The opposition there said it could not be done, but the county has the roads.

The laws of the state and its departments now in operation will collect the license fees and apply them to the building of hard roads at the same time providing engineering plans, inspection, etc. without any additional legislation, officers or boards. The license fees will be expended solely for labor and material necessary to build the roads by a well organized and efficient road department.

Of course, the system paves but a small part of the roads of the state. However, it will carry over half the traffic of the state and will permit one to go over the entire state over dependable 365 day roads. A start must be made somewhere. When this system is completed there is nothing to prevent starting other systems to supplement it and there is no reason why the several counties cannot continue under the present law to build hard roads to extend the system.

The argument that all road improvement should be in the hands of local road officers appeals to home folks, if they do not stop to think about the matter. If we only needed good roads within a few miles of home and if the money heretofore spent locally had got us anything permanent to speak of there would be something to this argument. So far as permanent road improvement is concerned, with the exception perhaps of bridges, culverts, etc., local road administration in the prairie districts has been very generally a failure.

In Morgan county for many years the road districts collected taxes totalling in the county between thirty-five and forty thousand dollars. The taxes extended for the year 1917 for the road districts of the county totals eighty-five thousand dollars. Property in Morgan county, lying outside of Jacksonville and South Jacksonville, paid this year $85,000 in road taxes. At this rate road taxes totalling about a million dollars will be levied in the next ten years. The maintenance of the dirt roads in the county is costing now about double what it cost but a few years ago. Where are we headed for at this rate of increase? How long before dirt roads will not cost as much as hard roads, if as a matter of fact many of them do not already do so?

It would seem that $85,000 a year should provide very well for the several road districts in the county. It should provide considerable permanent road betterment. Experience has taught us just about how much permanent improvement we will get from the $85,000. Of course dirt roads must be kept up and we must be taxed therefor but it is a waste of money to expend such vast sums in temporary betterments. And we will continue to do so until we build hard roads. If one-half of the money collected for roads in Morgan county were applied under the present law to building hard roads and the state-wide system is built, the county could easily have and pay for a county-wide system of hard road in ten years without any other taxation of any kind.

If Illinois ever expects to have a state-wide uniform system of 365 day roads, she must start to build it sometime and somewhere. The way to start to build it is to vote YES on the Little Road Improvement Ballot notwithstanding the objections and arguments of dirt road profiteers. The time to start it is now so that everything will be ready to start actual work thereon as soon as the war is over and then the whole system can be completed in five years without one penny of taxation of any kind on any taxable property, for motor vehicle license fees will easily pay the bill.

GOOD ROADS AND THE SIXTY MILLION DOLLAR BOND ISSUE

"Good Roads"—Yes that is what every one wants—it is like the popular vaudeville song entitled: "Don't Kick Your Mother When She's Down," a sentiment that all can acquiesce in. But suppose one objected to the air which this song was sung—could you justly say that he objected to the sentiment of the song? So I will contend that if I do not favor a Sixty Million Dollar bond issue at this time it does not follow that I am not in favor of good roads.

They propose to issue $60,000,000 of bonds at 4 per cent. I do not see how then can float it, when the government is offering 1 1/4 per cent on the best bonds in the world—the security on them being the richest nation in the world, so if contractors take the 1 per cent road bonds at par they will increase their bids to make up the deficiency at which the money loaners will discount the bonds, so it will come out of the tax payer about where it went in.

Assuming that the $60,000,000 bonds are sold at par at 4 per cent, then the annual interest to be paid will be two million, four hundred thousand dollars $2,400,000. How is it proposed to pay the bonds and interest? I am advised that the sum of four million dollars per year will be exacted from automobile owners and from this fund the bonds and interest will be paid. Then we can figure it, we have $4,000,000 for good roads each year and in justice the money derived from automobiles should be spent for good roads, but I do not favor paying out of this income the sum of two million, four hundred thousand dollars to money loaners and leave only one million six hundred thousand dollars for roads. I want to spend all the four million each year as received on good roads. The time to spend money is when you have it—not before. I understand Morgan County's proportion is near seven hundred thousand dollars of this sixty million indebtedness—that's some debt for the people of this county.

It is worth while to consider the local history of bonded indebtedness. We built a County Court House in 1868. It cost something like two hundred thousand dollars we have paid on that indebtedness. I have heard, near one million dollars and we still owe fifty thousand dollars on it—and the building is not worth the fifty thousand dollars—a better one could have been built a few years ago for less than the outstanding debt. The city of Jacksonville is still in debt (Bonds) for the water plant—Bonds mean bondage for the ax payer they mean income to the money loaner. Who do you think this bond issue is in favor of, the tax payer or the money loaner?

This is not a good time to build—labor is scarce, prices are high—we will get more for forty million dollars, (the four million dollars a year revenue for ten years spent as we have it—than for the Sixty Million Bond issue spent now. We have war prices now—debts contracted now are two dollar wheat, and dollar corn basis will be a great burden when paid in dollar and a quarter wheat and seventy five cent corn after the war.

This is a bad time to go in debt for large improvements—politicians and money loaners are making an organized effort for the sixty million dollar issue and I want to go on record now as not favoring it at this time but I do favor spending every dollar of cash available from the automobile income for road improvements—I am for good roads—not Bonds. The roads built as contemplated will not be within two miles of one farmer in eight. The permanent (?) roads built on the bond issue plan will be of little or no value—worn out—before the bonds are paid. Please remember that I said it.

I understand Morgan County's proportion is near seven hundred thousand dollars of this sixty million indebtedness—that's some debt for the people of this county.

It is worth while to consider the local history of bonded indebtedness. We built a County Court House in 1868. It cost something like two hundred thousand dollars we have paid on that indebtedness. I have heard, near one million dollars and we still owe fifty thousand dollars on it—and the building is not worth the fifty thousand dollars—a better one could have been built a few years ago for less than the outstanding debt. The city of Jacksonville is still in debt (Bonds) for the water plant—Bonds mean bondage for the ax payer they mean income to the money loaner. Who do you think this bond issue is in favor of, the tax payer or the money loaner?

This is not a good time to build—labor is scarce, prices are high—we will get more for forty million dollars, (the four million dollars a year revenue for ten years spent as we have it—than for the Sixty Million Bond issue spent now. We have war prices now—debts contracted now are two dollar wheat, and dollar corn basis will be a great burden when paid in dollar and a quarter wheat and seventy five cent corn after the war.

This is a bad time to go in debt for large improvements—politicians and money loaners are making an organized effort for the sixty million dollar issue and I want to go on record now as not favoring it at this time but I do favor spending every dollar of cash available from the automobile income for road improvements—I am for good roads—not Bonds. The roads built as contemplated will not be within two miles of one farmer in eight. The permanent (?) roads built on the bond issue plan will be of little or no value—worn out—before the bonds are paid. Please remember that I said it.

Standers, Walkers, "Gets-It" for Corns

World Has Never Known Its Equal

"What will get rid of my corn?" The answer has been made by millions—there's only one corn-remover that you can bank on, that's absolutely certain, that makes any corn on earth peel right off like a banana skin—and that's magic "Gets-It" Tight shoes and dancing even when you have a corn need not deter you if you apply a few drops of "Gets-It" on the corn or callus.

You want a corn-remover, not a corn-fooler. You don't have to fool with corns—you peel them right off with your finger using "Gets-It."

Cutting makes corns grow and bleed. Why use irritating salves or make a bundle of your toe with tape or bandages? Why putter and still have the corn? Use "Gets-It"—you corn-pain is over, the corn is a "gone" sure the sun rises.

"Gets-It" the guaranteed, money-back, corn-remover, the only sure way, costs but a trifling sum, sold by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

PRESIDENT'S APPEAL IS ANALYZED

Chairman Hays of Republican Committee Shows Why Republicans Are Not Wanted in Congress.

[By Associated Press.] New York, Oct. 28.—Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee, made public here a statement in which he replied in behalf of his party to President Wilson's appeal to the nation to return a Democratic congress. In his statement Mr. Hays said:

"President Wilson has questioned the motives and fidelity of your representatives in congress. He has, therefore, impugned their loyalty and denied their patriotism. His challenge is to you who elected those representatives. You owe it to them, to the honor of your great party and to your own self-respect, to meet that challenge squarely, not only as Republicans but as Americans. I as your chairman, call upon you to do it.

"Mr. Wilson accuses the Republicans of credit whatever for having supported the war measures proposed by his administration, although they have done so with greater unanimity than the members of his own party. Despite that fact he accuses them of having tried to usurp their proper functions.

"At no time and in no way have they tried to take control of the war out of his hands. The president knows that. The country knows it. A more ungracious more unjust, more wanton, more mendacious accusation was never made by the most reckless stump orator, much less by a president of the United States for partisan purposes. It is an insult not only to every loyal Republican in congress but to every loyal Republican in the land. It fully merits the resentment which rightfully and surely will find expression at the polls.

The Issue Is Clear. "Mr. Wilson grudgingly admits Republicans have been pro-war. Then why does he demand their defeat? Because they are still pro-war. Hardly that. No, it is because they are for peace, the not without victory, because they do not believe lasting peace can be obtained thru negotiation; because they consider 'U. S.' stands for 'Unconditional Surrender' as well as for 'United States' and 'Uncle Sam.' The Democratic congress does not. Mr. Wilson does not. There is the issue clear as the noonday sun. The country will decide.

"Mr. Wilson wants only rubber stamps his rubber stamps, in congress. He says so. No one knows it better than Democratic congressmen. He calls for the defeat of pro-war Republicans and the election of anti-war Democrats. He, as the executive—is no longer satisfied to be one branch of the government, as provided by the constitution. Republican congressmen must be defeated and Democratic congressmen must, as they would, yield in everything. That is evidently his idea—the idea of an autocrat calling himself the servant but bidding for the mastery of this great free people.

Sons Good Enough to Fight. "Republicans in congress have seemed to him good enough when they assented as they did assent, with highest patriotism and sometimes against their best judgment, to his proposals. Republicans at home have seemed to him good enough to send fully a million of their sons into battle, to furnish at least half of the army and far more than half of the money for winning the war but they are not considered good enough to have a vote in the settlement of the war.

"But Mr. Wilson's real purpose has nothing to do with the conduct of the war. He has had that from the beginning, has it now, and nobody dreams of interfering with his control. He wants just things. One is full power to settle the war precisely as he and his sole, unselected, unappointed, unconfirmed personal advisor may determine. The other is full power as the 'unembarrassed' spokesman in affairs at home, as he actually demands in his statement, to reconstruct, in peace times the great industrial affairs of the nation in the same way, in unimpeded conformity with whatever socialistic doctrines, whatever unlimited government ownership notions, whatever hazy whims may happen to possess him at the time, but first and above all, with absolute commitment to free trade with all the world, thus giving to Germany out of hand the fruits of a victory greater than she could win by fighting a hundred years. A Republican congress will never assent to that. Do you want a congress that will? Ger-many does. ***

Answer With Votes. "Mr. Wilson forces the Republican party to lie down or fight. I say fight! Answer with your votes.

"Mr. Wilson is for unconditional surrender—Yes for the unconditional surrender to himself of the Republican party; of the country, of the Allies—all to him as the sole arbiter and master of the destinies of the world. Do you stand for that? Answer with your votes!"

The stars shall shine for a thousand years.
A thousand years and a day;
But God and I will love and live
When the stars have passed away.

Matthews.
The funeral of the late L. C. Matthews took place from the family home, 515 East College street, at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. There was a large number of sorrowing friends who were there to pay a last sad tribute of love and respect to a man who was well and favorably known by a very wide circle of loyal friends and many close neighbors who knew him for his sterling honesty and his unassuming qualities that go to make a citizen who will be missed in a community of which he had been a resident for nearly a half century.

The services at the residence were in charge of Rev. W. R. Leslie, the pastor of Centenary M. E. church, who spoke words of comfort and consolation to the bereaved widow and son, and others dear to the one gone before. Mr. Leslie read appropriate lessons from the Scriptures, dwelling upon the importance of right living, so that when the last hour comes one may be ready to meet his Maker face to face and be able to say, "I have fought the good fight and I am faithful to meet the last dreaded foe, whose name is death."

This man had been a valiant soldier of the republic, and his heroism had helped to perpetuate the priceless principles of freedom on the field of battle, and his valor in the great contest was an evidence that government, of for and by the people, should not perish from the earth. Such men need no monuments to speak their worth. Their records are indelibly written on the tablets of our memory, and their records will endure as long as men love justice, truth and honor.

Our deceased brother was a member of the "triple link," friendship, love and truth and for many years had lived up to the governing principles of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. He had faith in his fellowmen, and truth was his guiding star in all the paths of his long and useful life. When one can truthfully say of another "he was a good neighbor," that is all that need be said in the way of a eulogy, for that expression covers all that means a good citizen. He had long passed his three score years and ten, and was ripe and ready for the Grim Reaper.

"The march of another comrade is over, and he lies down after it in the house appointed for all the living. His passing reminds us of the frailty of human life and the uncertainty of the future."

In such an hour as ye think not, the Son of Man cometh. And it seems well that he should be left where over him will bend the arching sky and where he may rest till the last trumpet shall sound, when the Captain of our salvation will call us to a fraternity which on earth and in heaven remains unbroken.

Jesus said, "Thy brother shall rise again. I am the resurrection and the life. Behold the silver cord is loosed the golden bowl is broken; we commit the body to the grave where dust shall return to the earth, and the spirit to God who gave it."

"Rock of Ages," and "Nearer My God to Thee," were beautifully rendered by Messrs. T. H. Rapp and Asa Robinson. At the grave the ritual of the order of Odd Fellows was carried out in a most impressive manner. The many floral offerings were beautiful evidences of the immortality of the soul, and were contributed by those who had loved the departed brother in life, and sought to honor him in death. In the years to come there may be those who will say, as they stand before his lowly resting place, "How sleep the brave who sink to rest By all their country's wishes blest. Here honor comes, a pilgrim gray, To bless the turf that wraps their clay."

The bearers were Captain Swales and L. Goheen, members of Matt Starr Post, Patrick McHatten and Thomas H. Burnett, members of the painter's union; John W. Bowen and Stansfield Baldwin, members of Urania Lodge, I. O. O. F.

Cox.

A number of Morgan county residents will remember Major Carlos C. Cox and regret to hear of his death which occurred recently. Major Cox was the husband of Miss Lydia Massey, formerly of this county. He was married here soon after the close of the Civil War, and he and his wife moved to Paola, Kans. There Mrs. Cox died in 1886 leaving her husband and six children. Soon after Major Cox remarried and changed his place of residence to Florida. In September of this year he came north to visit his sons living in Kansas and Iowa. After finishing his visit he had started to return home and was taken sick on the train. He grew rapidly worse and his death occurred within a few days' time.

Major Cox enlisted in the war as a private and passed thru a series of promotions until he was made major. After three years of service he re-enlisted and then served until the close of the war. His war record was one in which he and his family could well take pride and altogether he was a strong man. His career was in every way honorable. News of his death was received by H. H. Massey.

FORMER RESIDENT SHOOTS HUSBAND

The Globe Democrat Monday carried a story of the shooting of George Darr a former resident of Jacksonville by his wife. After shooting her husband she turned the weapon on herself.

The couple had been in Concord recently and Darr had gone to St. Louis and was followed by his wife. She went to the house of Darr's mother where he was stopping and fired three shots at him, taking effect. She then attempted to kill herself.

It is thought both will recover. The Darrs formerly resided here and the husband was employed at the Peacock Inn. Lately he has conducted a lunch room in Concord. Mrs. Darr's parents reside in Concord and recently they had been residing in that town.

WAR TIME DEMAND FOR TEACHERS

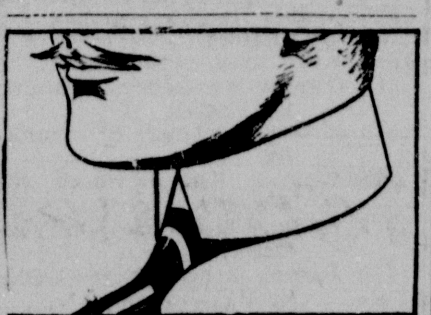

The school board service division of the U. S. bureau of education is making a special effort to secure the names of all teachers who are not now employed. Superintendent Perrin has received registration blanks and will be glad to enroll the names of any teachers who are willing to offer their services in this time of special stress. The shortage of teachers is rapidly becoming a serious aspect and the bureau is seeking to meet the emergency by securing a record of all available teachers in every locality. The teachers whose names are submitted are not recommended by the bureau but officials are put in touch with available candidates. The fact that so many teachers are being employed by the war department is responsible in large measure for the present condition and there are also other factors.

Supt. Perrin stated that there is one teacher in the local schools who desires to be released in order to enter upon a specialized position in a junior high school in the west. Some other well prepared teacher must be secured before this release can be granted. If there are any experienced teachers in this vicinity now not employed and who are willing to serve in the present shortage they are asked to communicate with Supt. Perrin.

RETURNED FROM SOUTH DAKOTA

C. O. Seymour of Franklin was in the city yesterday on his way home from South Dakota where he has been for three months. He gives a glowing account of conditions in that part of the land. Wheat was a fine crop while he says they claim two million bushels of potatoes more than they had last year. He says a lot of six hundred bushels sold just before he left for fifty cents a bushel. One Dakota paper, claiming to speak with authority and knowledge, said South Dakota alone could feed the allied armies nine months.

Harold and Horace Swain of the senior school at Great Lakes went Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Swain of Sinclair.

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

For Real Effectiveness, This Old Home-made Remedy Has No Equal. Easily and Cheaply Prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It takes but a moment to prepare, and really there is nothing better for coughs.

Into a pint bottle, put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. Either way, the final result saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma.

It is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known as the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments. To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

BAD COLD? HEADACHY AND NOSE STUFFED

"Pape's Cold Compound" Ends Colds and Grippe in a Few Hours.

Take "Pape's Cold Compound" every two hours until you have taken three doses, then all gripe misery goes and your cold will be broken. It promptly opens your closed-up nostrils, stops the air passages of the head; stops nasty discharge or nose running; relieves the headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed up! Quit blowing and sniffing. Ease your throbbing head—nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only a few cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice and causes no inconvenience. Accept no substitute.—Adv.

GIRLS! DRAW A MOIST CLOTH THROUGH HAIR, DOUBLE ITS BEAUTY

Try This! Hair Gets Thick, Wavy, Glossy and Beautiful at Once.

Immediate? Yes! Certain? That is the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a small bottle of Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents.—Adv.

The driver had backed up to a coal hole in side walk and unhitched his horses but was unable to get the tongue out of the way. A street car from the south was halted for a long time and failed wholly to make its connections and a number of automobile drivers were inconvenienced.

LESS DRUNKENNESS

IN UNITED KINGDOM

War Regulations Against Drinking Bring About Desirable State of Affairs—Abolition of Treating Great Factor in Temperance Gains.

London, Oct.—[Correspondence of The Associated Press].—Drunkenness and deaths from alcoholism in the United Kingdom show a decline ranging from 65 to 80 per cent, since the war regulations against drinking were instituted by the government three years ago, according to Lord D'Abernon, chairman of the Liquor Control Board.

Abolition of the custom of "treating" and drinking on an empty stomach and the virtual extinction of the saloon loafer, were the main factors contributing to the growing tendency to national temperance, Lord D'Abernon told The Associated Press.

"The lines on which we have proceeded," he continued, "are to a large extent novel and they have succeeded beyond expectation. Nor is there any evidence of growth of the drug habit which is usually one of the consequences of too drastic interference with facilities for obtaining liquor.

"This happy absence of undesirable features I attribute to the fact that, while facilities have been greatly curtailed—the liquor shops being open five and a half hours daily compared with 18 or 19 before the war—our arrangement of two periods, one at midday and the other in the evening, has been found sufficient by those who demand reasonable refreshment and nothing more, and those are of course the vast majority of drinkers. We are not out to interfere with them. It is the loafer and soaker, who would drink if he could from dawn to dusk, who interferes with national efficiency and whom we are out to stop. I think we have succeeded in that."

Drinking on an empty stomach, he remarked, was one cause of intoxication which the hours fixed for the sale of liquor tend to check. Those hours are from noon to 2:30 and from 6:30 to 9:30 in the evening. Most drinks consequently are taken with meals.

Lord D'Abernon, illustrating the temperance advance in England and Wales, Lord D'Abernon traced the decline of ill incident to alcoholism. "The delirium tremens and alcohol mortality figures," he said, "are of special importance as showing that there cannot have been any diversion of excessive drinking from the public house to the home."

He thought that the abolition of treating had also contributed largely to the gain in temperance. "This measure," he said, "had as its objective the elimination of the custom of 'treating' groups of workers after receiving their week's wages, spent a considerable part of it in 'standing their corners,' until each member of the party had in turn paid for drinks all around—to the detriment both of their working efficiency and of the happiness of their wives and families. The wonderful sobriety of the army and navy is due in no small degree to the restrictions on treating."

BUSINESS ON STOCK

EXCHANGE UNCERTAIN
NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Confusing tendencies manifested by today's active stock market lacked plausible explanation on any ground other than existing uncertainties at home and abroad.

A general demonstration of strength marked the broad opening, but much of this was dissipated before the expiration of the first hour, largely as a result of the further spectacular course of certain specialties.

Chief among these was Mexican Petroleum which advanced 11 1/2 points reacting 20 points and closed at a gain of 1 1/2 points. Related shares including Royal Dutch and Texas company were also erratic within moderate bounds and shipments and motors proved susceptible to pressure.

U. S. Steel registered a fractional gain at the outset declined almost three points and ended at a loss of almost two points. More stability was displayed by rail and coppers. Sales 975,000 shares.

Bonds were irregular, Liberty 3 1/2-s hardening after early recessions, foreign issues steady. Total sales $7,950,000.

UNITED WAR WORK COMMITTEES NAMED

Dr. Rammelkamp Announces Committees for United War Work Campaign—Mayor Rodgers and Secretary Findley Reported on Chicago Meeting.

The United War Work committee met yesterday afternoon in Ayers National bank building and heard the report of Secretary Findley and H. J. Rodgers of the great meeting in Chicago.

The gathering was in orchestra hall and some 1,500 delegates were present and were seated by states. The moving spirit of the whole was the great John R. Mott who outlined plans in an extended address. He said the budget first announced was made up last spring and since that time many things have transpired to cause the need of an increase. The ever changing and enlarging plans of the government, the enlarged navy from 70,000 men to 600,000; the increased industries adding large forces to the munition factories who must have attention.

Many other reasons were adduced. The matter of increase had been laid before the committee on military affairs; the war board and President Wilson and had received the approval of all. Dr. Mott thinks the war is far from over; we now have 2,000,000 men overseas and shall probably have a far greater number eventually and much money will be needed to care for these men as the German's have destroyed many "Y" huts which must be replaced. When the war ends it will take a year to get our men back and during that time they will need all the attention these seven organizations can give them.

The "Y" has lately sent abroad some 300 teachers and in France educational institutions are to be established exemplifying the American school system and affording our soldiers an opportunity to learn. Dr. Mott said he was reliably informed that by January 1st men of Class A between 36 and 45 would be called to the service.

The report was heard and it was agreed that Morgan county would accept the increased amount to be raised which would be $81,000 instead of $54,000 and of course our county will go over the top as usual. It was decided to canvass the general plan adopted by the Red Cross in the city. The county work will be somewhat on the plan of the Liberty Loan campaign.

LIVELY RUNAWAY MONDAY.

The almost Sunday quiet pervading the square Monday afternoon was disturbed about 2:30 o'clock by a brisk runaway, but fortunately no great damage was done. Sam Boston, who drives one of Uncle Sam's parcel delivery wagons was proceeding up East State street, when the king bolt broke, letting the front wheels lose. The horse became frightened and dashed toward the square with only the front wheels attached. Mr. Boston was thrown forward on his face but escaped with a few bruises. When the horse reached the square and turned south a street car blocked the path and turned it in to the automobiles parked on the east side. Over the engine of one of which it made a clean leap. The fender and hood of the car was damaged slightly. The name of the owner could not be ascertained. The horse was stopped on South Mauvais street.

DEATH CLAIMED CARNEGIE HERO

Moses C. Large Rewarded by Carnegie Commission for Saving Life of Aged Woman Died Sunday Morning—Funeral Held Monday Afternoon.

Death claimed Moses C. Large at the Emergency hospital Sunday morning at 5:45 o'clock. It was not the first time that Moses Large had faced death, but he was unafraid and passed out with a smile on his face.

August 18, 1910 the building occupied by the Graham Hardware company, 233 North Main street burned. The fire occurred early in the morning and a man named Watson perished in the flames.

Moses Large, the handicapped by the fact that he only had one leg, carried "Granny" Miller, an aged and almost helpless woman down stairs and out of the building, saving her life. Fire Chief Hunt, then head hoseman also carried Mrs. Lindsay to safety. For facing death and saving a life, Large was awarded a Carnegie medal and a sum of money which was invested in a home. Despite the recognition, his modest and unassuming and his greatest happiness was found in his home.

Deceased was born in Missouri August 15, 1875 and was at the time of death 40 years, 2 months and 12 days old. He was united in marriage to Miss Anna Tiven in Jacksonville, who survives, together with two children, James and Ida Large.

Mr. Large was stricken with influenza several days ago and was removed to the emergency hospital where pneumonia developed. His brother-in-law, James Tiven and one child succumbed to the disease and for several days little hope has been held out for Mr. Large's recovery.

The remains were removed to Gillham's undertaking parlors and prepared for burial. The funeral was held at Jacksonville cemetery Monday afternoon in charge of the Rev. W. R. Leslie. The bearers were Robert Lorton, John Shelton, Sylvester Holden, Lever Bostick, E. J. Conover and Al J. Spues. The flowers were cared for by Miss Lucile Large and Mrs. J. H. Harrison.

The assortment of men's hats shown by FRANK BYRNS' Hat Store will please both the winner and loser of election forfeits.

Y. W. C. A. MEETS

Monday afternoon at three thirty the Y. W. C. A. of Illinois college met. After several hymns were sung the roll was called. The purpose of the association was given, followed by prayer.

Mrs. Turner, the president made a number of announcements. She urged all girls wishing "Y. W. C. A." pins to place their names on the bulletin board in the girls' room before Tuesday.

Miss Doris Schuman gave a very sweet vocal solo.

Dr. Pontius, pastor of the Christian church addressed the girls upon "The Personality of Christ." He gave a very interesting discussion upon the inspiration to be gained from reading the bible; and plainly showed the lack and need in life, in the history of the nations, before Christ's birth. He touched upon the effect of Christ's personality which has lived for nearly two thousand years.

After the meeting adjourned a number of committees convened to plan the year's work.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE S. A. T. C. RELEASES MEN

Done to Comply with Government Ruling on Men Who Had Registered Prior to September 12.

Recently First Lieut. Coon in command of the S. A. T. C. Unit of Illinois College has released fourteen men under orders from the war department.

The men were released because of a ruling that men who had registered under the selective draft law prior to September 12 were not eligible to military training units in college. This therefore, makes all men who registered in June subject to call from local boards and their release places them again under jurisdiction of their local boards.

Speaking of the matter last evening Lieut. Coon said that the order probably would result in the men getting into active service sooner and enable them to see overseas service.

Released are:

William Elmer Gudge, Hull, Ill., Box 64.

Hiram J. Drury Jacksonville, Ill. R. 3.

Francis H. Taylor, Winchester, Ill., Box 105.

SECOND EMERGENCY HOSPITAL SECURED

Red Cross Committee Will Use Dr. Day Building for Influenza Cases.

The Dr. Day hospital building on West State street has been opened under the auspices of the Red Cross influenza committee as a second emergency hospital. As indicated in the statement in the Journal Sunday morning, the trustees of Passavant hospital made an offer to the committee to supply a superintendent and four nurses for this emergency hospital if the Red Cross would agree to take care of the necessary expenses.

The matter had been under consideration by the Red Cross influenza committee of which Judge E. P. Brockhouse is chairman, and he attended the hospital trustees conference Saturday night. It was stated at that time that the committee had previously had the Day building under consideration and that Mayor Rodgers and Judge Brockhouse, acting for the committee, had made an agreement with the Passavant hospital that the furniture and equipment purchased at the Day hospital by Passavant could be used for an emergency hospital if desired. The committee had no satisfactory arrangement for securing an adequate nursing force, so the offer by Passavant hospital settled this difficulty.

Monday Judge Brockhouse after further conference with Miss Kimmel, superintendent of nurses at the hospital, and E. W. Brown, president of the board, was able to announce that all the arrangements had been completed and the hospital which furnished space for thirty-five or forty patients, will be at once put in readiness for influenza cases. Only influenza cases can be received in either the open air hospital or the hospital No. 2, and general rules governing admission have been outlined by Dr. D. W. Reid, who is a member of the Red Cross emergency influenza committee. Aid in influenza cases is now being extended without regard to the financial standing of the patients. It is expected that all persons who are able to do so will pay the expense incurred.

Calls for assistance of information should be given to Illinois 1473, which is the number at the open air school hospital.
